

Senior Business Development Manager Richmond, VA Official Home of the Virginia Lottery

At the Virginia Lottery, we work hard and play even harder. Since Virginians will make a game out of anything, our job is to create excitement, encourage friendly competition and support Virginians' love of games. And not just our games, but all games. For more than 28 years, we've been working and playing together, building an amazing organization committed to growing and giving back – and having fun while doing it.

We work hard to build authentic relationships with all Virginians by allowing them to experience our "We're Game" brand in surprising, relevant and unique ways. Operating entirely on revenue from game sales, rather than tax dollars, the Virginia Lottery generates approximately $1.4 million per day for Virginia's K-12 public schools. In short, we're game for fun, and we're game for education by contributing to Virginia's future one play at a time. Are you?
